For Sale on behalf of a Client

1936 Ford Y Type

Pretty pre-war saloon was an instant success for Ford, and starting at just £100, was (and probably still is) the cheapest saloon ever. This particular example has an extensive photographic record of a restoration carried out some years ago. It is surprisingly lively and pleasant to drive with 850 cc engine, 3 speed gearbox and effective brakes. MOT to November 2012.
