History: Excellent in grey metallic paint with red leather interior, very well restored at some time in the past, remains very good with excellent body, paint and brightwork, restored interior with lovely red leather seats, fine woodwork and very good headlining, underside appears to be equally good. Starts easily and runs well with smooth engine and gearbox, both of which seem to have had work in the past, disc brakes all round and power steering. Recently fitted with new wires, has original radio, a new MOT and a little history.
