History: Judging by the fibreglass rear, was originally a saloon and at some stage converted to a van using one of the commercially available kits, very well done, correctly registered as a Light Van, attracts attention wherever it goes, great fun to drive and a great load lugger. Fitted with the all important galvanised chassis, bodywork in generally pretty good, blue paintwork is lovely. Fittings in the cab include reversing camera and good quality radio, fibreglass cab roof is removable to let the fresh air in, comes with spare keys, V5 and current MOT.
